The Missouri Botanical Garden in St. Louis was founded in 1859 by Henry Shaw. Today, the Garden is a National Historic Landmark and a center for science, conservation, education and horticultural display—widely considered one of the top three botanical gardens in the world.

Tour Groups

The Garden welcomes all tour groups. Groups of 15 or more booked in advance enjoy discounted admission and receive 1 free admission for every 15 paid admissions (maximum of 2 free admissions per group). The Garden is quite large, 79 acres, we recommend about 2 ½ to 3 hours for your visit.

Tour Possibilities

Private Tram Tours*

Narrated tram tours provide a wonderful introduction of the Missouri Botanical Garden. Available April 1 through October 31, private tram tours take approximately 30 minutes, accommodate up to 36 guests, and cost $150.

Private Walking Tours*

Guided walking tours offer light exercise and can be customized to group interests and schedule. We also offer a “PowerPoint tour”* for group participants with mixed abilities, after which participants can explore the Garden on their own. Both provide an expert guide. The cost for a Garden tour is $7 per person (in addition to general admission); the tour typically lasts about 1 hour. Extended, customized, or special interest tours are $10 per person (in addition to general admission) and generally last about 2 hours.

Dining Options

Open year-round, the Garden’s restaurant, Sassafras, offers casual dining. Lunch is served from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., and light refreshments throughout the day. Please call Catering St. Louis at (314) 577-0261 regarding information for boxed lunches.

Shopping

The award-winning Garden Gate Shop offers earth-friendly merchandise, fine gifts, plants, garden accessories, and books. Pre-booked groups enjoy special coupon offers. Ask us about our “Little Shop Around the Corner.”

Orchid Show

February–March

The annual Orchid Show offers visitors the rare opportunity to see the Garden's expansive orchid collection inside our floral display hall. More than 500 orchids are on display with themes changing annually.

Best of Missouri Market®

October

Shop this outdoor market featuring more than 120 vendors featuring food, crafts, herbs, custom jewelry, baskets, handcrafted items and more. Enjoy live music, a food court, and a kid's corner with crafts. Held rain or shine.

Chinese Culture Days

April

A Grand Parade led by a 70-foot dancing dragon opens our annual festival, featuring acrobatics, square dances, tea and cooking demonstrations, traditional artwork and authentic regional cuisine. Enjoy special tours and activities in the Grigg Nanjing Friendship Chinese Garden.

Gardenland Express

November – December

This annual show features G-scale trains traveling through 900 feet of holiday landscapes. Festive decorations, holiday plants, and interpretive displays make this a must see in St. Louis. Themes change annually.

Japanese Festival

Labor Day weekend

From traditional music to martial arts, bon odori dancing to bonsai, thunderous taiko drumming to Tea House Island tours, the three-day Labor Day weekend is filled with experiences for all visitors. For more than 40 years the Garden has hosted this festival, now one of the largest of its kind in the United States.

Garden Glow

November – December

Featuring a million lights surrounding visitors with a spectacle of unique exhibits amid some of the Garden's most iconic locations. Enjoy interactive photo opportunities, traditional holiday music and festivities, delicious food and drinks and more as the Garden is transformed around you into a winter wonderland.

Gene Peimann, the Garden's Manager of Tourism, looks forward to working with you!
