

Dan Dreyfus

Dan Dreyfus is a St. Louis-based professional photographer whose work ranges from fine art to advertising and has been featured in numerous national and international publications. His first book, Reflections of Shaker Spirit, won local and national awards. Dan's second book, Morning Glories, was recently completed. Over the past 25 years, Dan has operated his commercial photography business, Dreyfus + Associates Photography, Inc. out of a historic building in midtown St. Louis. Clients include advertising agencies, corporations, design firms, hospitals, foundations and universities.

In addition to working throughout the United States, his work has taken him to South America, Europe, and last May to China. Dan was one of ten American photographers invited by the Nanjing Photographic Association in association with the Sister Cities exchange program, and the International Photography Hall of Fame and Museum (IPHF), to participate in a trip to China where their photography was exhibited in the Nanjing Hall of Science. Dan is also an adjunct professor of photography at Webster University and is the founder of Light + Discovery Photo Workshops.
